

When we feel discouraged, sad, rejected, despairing or desperate, where can we run? Spirituality – Running to God is a web-site devised by 3 spiritual leaders to help you on your pathway to eternity. Every two weeks, through audios and writings, we will be adding to this treasury of spiritual insight.

Ronda Chervin received a Ph.D. in Philosophy from Fordham University and an MA in Religious Studies from Notre Dame Apostolic Institute. She is a dedicated widow, mother, and grandmother.

Ronda converted to the Catholic Faith from a Jewish, though atheistic, background and has been a Professor of Philosophy and Theology at Loyola Marymount University, the Seminary of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Franciscan University of Steubenville and at Holy Apostles College and Seminary in Connecticut. She is an international speaker and author of some fifty books about Catholic thought, practice and spirituality.

Ronda is currently discerning being a consecrated widow in an ecclesial movement in Connecticut. For more about it, visit RondaChervin.com which you'll find in the left-side Links menu.

Dr. Ronda is currently speaking and writing in Corpus Christi, Texas. You can contact her via [c
